

Fire Test: Discovering Your Décor Trifecta

From the seminar Leveling Up from Live, Laugh, Love

By Leslie Hart-Davidson, Allied Educator ASID, Member + Presenter NKBA

1

Take the fire test

Your home is on fire. You have 90 seconds to rescue your most sentimental possessions that are irreplaceable by insurance. What do you choose? If your answer is “nothing,” then you are in desperate need some personalized décor in your life. Let’s look at ways to make your home more than just an address where your amazon orders are sent.

2

Discover your trifecta

The decor you choose to display or hang in your home has the potential to define you in three ways: who you are, where you come from, and what you believe in. Showcasing items that answer any of the trio of questions will create décor that is a level above and beyond mass-produced big box purchases.

3

Get creative and grab a hammer

Think about what items you might have stashed in a drawer or a file that would answer the call of the trifecta.

Menus from a special dinner date? Frame it!

Greeting cards you can't bear to toss? Frame it!

Ticket stubs from a cool concert? Frame it!

Magazine covers from meaningful events or years? Frame it!

Grandma's handwritten recipe cards? Frame it!

